

Spider T Open Weekend

celebrating their involvement in the diamond jubilee

Keadby Lock

10am - 4pm Saturday 24th
11am - 4pm Sunday 25th
November 2012

We are having an art exhibition/open weekend on board at her home moorings at Keadby Lock on Sat & Sun 24 & 25 November.

There will be the new Spider T Jubilee clothing range on sale and well known regional maritime artist; Lesley Everatt in attendance all weekend displaying her latest artwork that has a heavy emphasis on local heritage.

Various gift ideas will be on sale including artwork prints, the new clothing range and signed copies of Chris Horan's well sought after book "Humber Sail and History". Plus the most unusual gift, "white hot" riveted Spider T test pieces will be on sale for the first time in a special presentation format.

Spider T will be illuminated by an oil and electric lighting display in the classic guise - up in the rigging and around her decks for a colourful and nostalgic experience.

Entertainment with a visual display of Spider T's recent voyage to the Thames for the Queen's Diamond Jubilee Pageant and last years voyage to Scotland for the 200th anniversary of the "Bell Rock Lighthouse" in a very well presented photo journal of events can be viewed on board over the weekend.

There will also be talks given on the voyage to the Thames for the Jubilee Pageant, as well as Spider T's model sailing on the canal weather permitting. Light refreshments will be available tea coffee etc.
